

Profile Analysis:
During the impact evaluation, the participants profile shows distributions related to education level, diversity, gender, income, market niche, and market competitiveness.

Employability Analysis:

After the program, a percentage of participants reported creating at least one new job, indicating a direct impact on employability. Indirect effects may be inferred from the revenue growth observed.

Revenue Analysis:

The revenue analysis shows the proportion of participants who experienced an increase or decrease in revenue, as well as the percentage achieving more than 50% growth.

Project Importance Analysis:

The perceived importance analysis summarizes participants responses across all evaluated categories, indicating the program's overall positive impact.

Other Program Impacts:

Did you make relevant connections thanks to the Inovativa program?

How important was participating in Inovativa for gaining access to new clients?

How important was participating in Inovativa for finding new ideas and solutions for your business?

